Dear Parent/Carer

GCSE English Masterclass

It is our great pleasure to invite you and your son/daughter to a masterclass on Christmas through English Literature on Thursday 12th December between 6pm and 7pm. Parents and students who attended our masterclasses last year said that they found them extremely useful and interesting sessions, and we really would like this up-coming session to be even more successful than last year.

In putting on these masterclasses, we recognise how many parents often want to support as well as understand key aspects of their child's curriculum. We hope to encourage as many parents to attend this masterclass as possible so that you can assist with your child's revision at home. We also hope you will enjoy the opportunity to come along and learn more about Christmas through literature.

The masterclass will be run by Mr Wells, Headteacher and English teacher.

To give us an idea of numbers for the upcoming masterclass on Christmas through literature, we would appreciate it if you could email or telephone the school with details of how many people we should expect. Doors will be open from 5.45 pm. Many thanks in advance for supporting this event. We very much look forward to welcoming you.

Yours faithfully

Scott Thomas
